Dear Janet,
Haven't we had a "ball" this year?
First at the band dinner, then marching, marching, marching . . . finally the G.A.A. picnic & Do you remember? We'll finally learn to Good luck Janet!
Love,

oak lawn community high school 1958

oak lawn, illinois vol. 6

dedication

The pages of this book open the gates of our school life, as well as a vision of responsibility for the future of Oak Lawn Community High School which rests with us all.

This 1958 SHIELD is gratefully dedicated to those students who looked to our school for the materials to build a richer and fuller existence based on knowledge; to those who gave their toil in sustaining school work; to the generation that is about to encounter life's obstacles as true Spartans . . . OUR SENIORS!

foreword . . .

Prepared to meet the trials of life head-on, our Senior Class exhibits both the desire to advance onto some new horizon and the understandable reluctance of not wishing to leave OLCHS. In each face, there is a genuine touch of regret . . . a realization that the experiences gained here are once-in-a-lifetime things which no amount of success will ever be able to bring back.

Mingled with the hesitancy of making yet another forward step, an almost eager expectancy can be viewed . . . the flush of excitement in attaining that desired diploma and gaining the still greater responsibilities which go with it.

To those people, "Senior" is a magic word. It's the key by which one door is closed and the vistas to an entirely new mode of achievement opened. And even if you can't quite define the elusive word, you know it's still wonderful.

Dear Janet:
Best of luck with the flute and your studies. Don't do anything I wouldn't do.

administration

Mr. David F. Winters represents different things to some fourteen hundred students attending Oak Lawn Community High School. Officially, he is superintendent. But to us who know him he is someone to turn to in time of stress, a stable quantity that personifies our institution.

To some he is the ultimate in the chain of school command; to others, the paternal influence that makes OLCHS one family. Yet to all he is the factor uniting administration, faculty and students.

The man who is concerned with the intricacies of everyday school procedure is our assistant superintendent, Mr. B. E. Wetzel. Upon his shoulders fall the details and problems involved in maintaining OLCHS standards.

He is also the administrator the students turn to for the approval of a thousand and one projects, and know that whether or not he consents they will always receive an answer in the best interests of our school.

Even with these responsibilities, it is the gentle, considerate sense of humor that has most endeared our assistant superintendent to all.

board of education

The Board of Education, pictured below, formulates the policies which guide OLCHS in the daily pattern of school life. Elected to translate the educational wishes of the community into a program of scope and depth, they have given new impetus to the position occupied by a school's governing panel.

Our present members of the Board are Warren O. Keneipp, President; Lester E. Thornton, Charles W. Lawrence, Robert Stitt, Arthur S. MacDonald, Milford Hoyd, Lawrence P. Kuffel and Steven Redman.

Probably the best indication of their success is the stature of OLCHS in the eyes of the community and the students. As their accomplishments testify, they possess an impressive stature.

dean of girls

As the personification of those traits to which the OLCHS girls aspire, our Dean of Girls, Mrs. Jennie Orr, represents an example of leadership in guidance. Her energy, resourcefulness and ability are the qualifications which mark a job well done.

fr. dean of boys

In a similar capacity, Joseph Zajac must act as friend and counselor to those who, perhaps more than any other group, really need it, our freshmen. But our Dean of Freshmen Boys is more than administrator, because he's never too busy for a smile and a nod of the head to all.

bookkeeper & receptionist

Checking what appears to be an important part of office paper work are bookkeeper ViNette Marjan and receptionist Frances McGreevy.

dean of boys

The tasks of disciplinarian, confidant and all-around good fellow are all embodied in the single job of Boys' Dean. Yet for a person like Paul Burgess, the problems are all in the day's work, and the responsibility is only the means by which his personality may assist those in need of counsel.

guidance director

Guiding our seniors in their choise of a future endeavor, Sally Emmel attempts to channelize the best efforts of our students into areas of worthwhile achievement. Her position as Guidance Director demands the utmost in ability to deal with all the vagaries of personality, and, as OLCHS students will testify, she has met such requirements admirably.

registrar and secretary

Intent on some point of filing interest, secretary Lois Lindgren stands above registrar Donna Woolridge.

drivers' education

library staff

Miss Blanche Stutzman is responsible for the various functions of the school library--a task she performs with characteristic helpfulness. Our library secretary, newly appointed this year, is Miss Duke.

custodians

The custodians of our school perform the function of maintaining the physical aspects of the institution.

cafeteria staff

Preparing the delicacies and staples of the culinary arts, the staff of our cafeteria are pictured in deep concentration on the choice of the next day's menu.

national honor society

The National Honor Society is composed of those students, elected in their Junior and Senior years, who best evidence examples of character, scholarship, leadership and service. It is one of the highest honors that can come to a student in high school. This year's members are pictured below together with Mr. Manwaring, the group's sponsor.

national merit scholarship

semi-finalists

David W. Johnson and Donald R. Wheeler were named semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship competition this year. The seniors have been listed among the 7,500 high scorers on the Scholarship Qualifying Test, a nationwide college aptitude examination given in 14,000 high schools.

The semi-finalists outscored 300,000 fellow seniors, and thus moved a step closer to the $4 million in Merit Scholarships to be awarded in the 1958 program.

Merit scholarships are sponsored by over sixty business and industrial firms, as well as by professional societies, foundations and even individuals. The Sears-Roebuck Foundation is the largest sponsor, with 100 awards worth $500,000 being granted annually.

The program is designed to search the nation for those students most able to benefit from a college education.

Once discovered in the national talent hunt, the students are supported in college by funds provided by sponsoring companies. About 1,400 Merit Scholarships have been awarded in the two years of the program, and the winners are now enrolled in over 265 different colleges.

Providing leadership in all forms of student activity, representative government at Oak Lawn takes the form of our Student Council.

Organized extra-curricular clubs, as well as any class member, may petition to the Council for the right to conduct any one of a number of social affairs or concessions under Council jurisdiction. All money gained is used by the petitioning club to benefit its own activity.

Yet, above and beyond the Council's governing student functions, it guides the way for a clearer conception of a representative republic.

The members, elected through home rooms, are the school leaders of past and present, helping to shape the destiny of OLCHS.

Pictured with this year's members are sponsors of the group, Mr. Adduci and Miss Merrill.

Our Library Aids seem to be forever stamping dates on the myriad volumes which pass over Miss Stutzman's desk. And, although the service ofttimes is unappreciated by the rushing student, it represents still another useful function performed as an administrational assistance.

hall guards

To some it may appear that the hall guards are an unsung lot, yet their duty of watchful waiting is probably reward in itself. Their sponsor is Mr. Burgess.

With the sparkle of any athletic competition, there's always the organized cheers that offer that needed zest to win.

In the case of Oak Lawn, it's the Pep Club that supplies the spirit which makes our teams occupy championship positions.

It's the needed "zing" that only a large group can give an event. And only our Pep Club provides in the special way that makes it worthwhile.

The people responsible for prodding the staff into more energetic activity are Ray Cizowski, our editor-in-chief, sitting to the right of Mr. James Brown, our advisor, and Warren Freiberg, copy eidtor, who looks on.

Our layout editor, Barb Boyens, and Diane Kopp, social editor look with pride on the pages of what they hope will be the best yearbook OLCHS has produced.

The girls who pecked the typewriter keys are our secretaries Pat Mehring, standing, and Nancy Schmidt.

The suspicious glance of Joyce Campbell, senior editor, seems to be asking Doreen Davidson, junior editor, whether or not she forgot any editorial detail.

Aptly portrayed by his own deft hand, Bruce Jannush, art editor, happily sketches away toward meeting the seemingly endless deadlines of the Shield.

The Shield staff wishes to extend a special thanks to those people of assistance in advertising: Edward Stoller, Jack Windsor, Bill Stapleton and Carol Jacobs. We would also like to thank the following people who served on the picture committee: Janet Anderson, Jolene Chase, Loretta Matz, Claudette Krumpolz, Marilyn Drozdz and Carol Hilger.

football — 1957

Somehow there's nothing quite as wonderful as a crisp autumn afternoon, unless it could be an afternoon with a football game wrapped into it. And when that game is privileged to have the Oak Lawn Spartan team with it, you know that you're seeing one of the most memorable events in a high school career.

Our varsity squad didn't have the world's greatest record in 1957, but that means little to a team with the greatest spirit. Besides, they know they'll always be backed by the greatest school!

Our basketball team is the product of constant improvement. Their success in 1957 at taking third place in the Crete-Monee tournament is only one instance of the team being molded in a winning pattern by coaching dedication. In this case, the credit goes to Coach Joe Walton. Yet, as with any worthwhile endeavor, it's the combination of capable direction and group effort that tells the tale of success.

In a smashing series of wrestling victories Oak Lawn placed second in the Southwestern Suburban Conference behind Reavis with a score of 104-88. ChicoConiglio, Richard Lisak and Richard O'Brenski, won Championships. Pat Coniglio, Dick Perillo, Jack Windsor and Frank Bulow were among the second place winners. The real highlight of the season, however, was Chico Coniglio's streak of seventeen successive pins; not to be outdone, Erv Beckett went undefeated in seventeen dual meets. Our only loss during the season was to undefeated Reavis by the slight margin of 25-19. F. Coniglio, J. Windsor, E. Beckett and R. Lisak qualified to go to state. Coniglio and Lisak each took a second place.

class officers-

With a year of experience behind them, our sophomores find themselves in the middle of things. Removed from the freshmen, yet not upperclassmen, the sophomores are content in learning about life even if they don't savor it all.

To guide this year, they chose: President, Nancy Petrokovitch; Vice-President, Patrick Coniglio; Secretary, Janis Sherman; Treasurer, Florence Wettergren.

Their goal, of course, is to be guided into their Junior year!

Janet,
Loads of luck to a swell friend.
I'll always remember all the mysterious notes you sent me to decode and those crazy phone calls - now!!!
And those crazy things we've done in the past year - this page isn't large enough to fill them - picking flowers after dark, eating a dollars worth of ice cream on a home from the plaza, buying a plum
a super market, drinking all that water, wearing sunglasses, a scarf, and carrying flowers, and acting real stupid to the clerks, and forever running out of money.
You know, sometimes I believe people must think we're really crazy!
I hope we can continue to have all those good times together.
Anybody want a free baseball?
Hey, is your water running?
Your pal always,
Mary Kerns
